Qulliq Energy Corporation (QEC) would like to inform Nunavummiut that QEC's upgrades and maintenance season has begun.

QEC will inform customers in advance when a power outage is planned in their community through the radio, social media, and email.

To ensure that customers receive a safe and reliable electrical supply, the QEC team takes advantage of better weather conditions at this time of year to repair damaged power lines and poles and perform upgrades and maintenance to the overall electrical system.

QEC would like to thank Nunavummiut for their understanding.
