

Supervisor

Job Description Qulliq Energy Corporation

Date

Powerline Technician POSITION NUMBER Various TITLE Line/Regional Distribution Supervisor Н REPORTS TO POSITION GRADE LEVEL Iqaluit, Rankin Inlet, Cambridge Bay HOME COMMUNITY POSITION TYPE Indeterminate The Powerline Technician is responsible for installing, maintaining, and repairing overhead and PURPOSE underground power lines and cables. The position is also responsible for connecting new services, installing temporary services, and inspecting and maintaining tools, equipment, and vehicles used to carry out line PRIMARY Inspects, troubleshoots, and repairs powerline systems, subsystems, and equipment to ensure maximum productivity and quality. RESPONSIBILITIES Inspects, troubleshoots, and repairs emergency powerline systems, subsystems, and equipment and replaces as required. Travels to remote communities to perform regular inspections, conduct preventative maintenance, install equipment, and perform general repairs to powerlines and systems. Maintains maintenance documentation and coordinates with operators, maintenance staff, when amending documentation. Ensures all materials used during construction and repairs are logged and reported to the Line Supervisor. Provides on-site solutions or modifications to bring systems back online as quickly as possible during outage situations while mitigating risk to equipment. Always maintains a clean and safe work environment and acts in a pro-active manner to make timely recommendations for continuous improvement of operations and equipment. Ensures work is conducted in accordance with all corporate policies and procedures; territorial, provincial, and national codes; and in compliance with all health, safety, and environmental regulations EDUCATION AND Intra-provincial certification as a Powerline Technician. TRAINING Red Seal certification is an asset. Class 3 driver's licence with an airbrake endorsement, and the ability to meet vehicle insurance PRIOR EXPERIENCE requirements of OEC The incumbent interacts with a variety of stakeholders including employees, customers, the public, or INTERPERSONAL others outside the organization. Communications can at times be of moderate difficulty and sensitivity but SKILLS typically involves routine, straightforward exchanges of information. The position routinely involves a high degree of alertness and concentration to complete job tasks. There are significant sensory demands and job requirements for vigilance and attentiveness. There are often tight CONCENTRATION time pressures to finish specific job tasks. The effect of interruptions on job results is significant. The need for precision work is high. Work routinely exerts a high level of physical exertion. Work could require very fine dexterity and extreme PHYSICAL muscular control, involving various taxing body postures. The degree of physical strain produced on the DEMANDS job is very high. Job tasks are generally straightforward, with some repetitiveness. Employees receive clear direction SCOPE regarding their work but must use discretion and judgement to apply accepted guidelines. Work requires a limited to moderate responsibility for material resources. The position is responsible for MATERIAL ensuring that materials used are accurately accounted for and reported for reconciliation. The incumbent has a moderate control over the resources and the cost of errors could result in moderate damage, waste RESOURCES and/or financial loss. INFORMATION Work typically requires limited to moderate responsibility for information. Information can be somewhat RESPONSIBILITY sensitive, protected, or of limited confidentiality. The incumbent is expected to mentor apprentices, which will include responsibilities for checking the SUPERVISORY quality of work and providing guidance, instruction, training and direction to the apprentices. Constant exposure to extremely adverse and undesirable environmental conditions, including loud noise, WORKING electrical equipment, working at heights and extreme cold. Safety equipment and precautions are CONDITIONS required. AUTHORIZATION Senior Manager (Department) Date President and CFO Date

Employee

Date